13th Issue

From the Editors desk:

Greetings to all the ministering saints. My, some of you have been really busy this month, overseeing the Young People's Camp at Rotorua. We thought the brothers [Gary, Tony and Paul] did a tremendous job. They ministered The Word to the young hearts and arranged different interesting activities that were full of fun and laughter [judging by the photos that we were given to put into this BNL.]

Then we learned that Brother Greg Alford had gone to minister to the young people in Canada. [See report in this issue].

May The Lord put His blessing on all of those young lives. And talking about that, our sister Christine Ruegg was blessed to have that beautiful testimony in which she humbly told of the battles that she had with her 'old' nature before she was willing to surrender her will to Jesus. Praise His Name. The Holy Spirit has been the subject of our discussions these last few weeks and I was wondering if some of you brethren would like to also write of your experience of being filled with The Holy Spirit. I know The Lord comes to the heart of the believer and infills each one individually in His Sovereign way. And the humble Bride rejoices to see the Fountain in her day.

On behalf of the Committee members, Bros Ross, Adrian [overseas at the moment] and myself, I send you much Christian love.

~~2009 Lakes Ranch Youth Camp~~

The wet and windy weather failed to dampen the spirits of the young people as they settled into camp on Thursday the 5th March.

Brother Gary Walker started the services Thursday evening with a short and punchy sermon on "Attitude" and a graphic, attention grabbing video clip which depicted the massive nuclear destruction of the tribulation period. He continued for all three services with the peer pressure theme showing some astounding film footage of the inherent willingness of people to conform to social pressure. He used the scripture "What will a man give in exchange for his soul". It certainly captured the young people's attention and set a sincere mood for the rest of the camp services that were to follow.

Bro Clayton McKenzie, Bro Matiu Noakes and Sis Naomi Noakes shared their testimonies and how that as the Lord changed each of their lives they were able to then pass the 'batten' of truth on from one to the other. It was a real blessing.

Brother Tony Murray started with a power-point presentation entitled the "Flying Eagle". Later, in "What's Your Plan", he demonstrated the error of accepting the outer wrapping as an indicator of the value of the contents, with a block of wood wrapped in chocolate wrapper. This demonstration had a surprising additional twist for his sermon on Sunday morning entitled "Treasure in Earthen Vessels".

Brother Paul Moffitt preached on "Priorities" focusing on Mary and Martha, and her dilatory manner. He followed in similar vein preaching on "Pre eminence". A number of people were quick to come to the altar for prayer for the Holy Spirit. On Sunday afternoon Paul exhorted the young people to claim their inheritance rather than just talk about it. He gave a demonstration where he offered a piece of paper from the pulpit which he said was redeemable for one person's camp fees, paid back again – it took a moment or two for anyone to believe him, but the young people soon understood the concept, that to avail themselves of what is offered, they must first come and claim it.

There was a real sweet atmosphere as people stayed to worship after each service. All three of the ministers encouraged the young people to saturate their lives in the Message of the hour, and keep themselves in likeminded Christian company, away from the things of the world.

We were also blessed to have 7 young people come from Caboolture, Australia to be with us at camp this year. Thanks to Bro. Grant Bull for his efforts in arranging and escorting them in their travels.

Much thought must go into the building of their boat to make it seaworthy and 'stand the test'

The Girls are settling their horses prior to trek

Between services there were various activities.

There was horse riding for the girls and abseiling for the boys, a giant swing with a modesty adaptation for the girls. While the boys played penguin soccer in the equestrian centre, the girls relaxed in the hot pool. Egg tag was compulsory and caused a lot of laughter and a lot of begging for spare eggs to "repay" Brother Eugene. Cardboard boat building continued for two days. While the boats weren't as novel in their decoration they were more sea worthy than last year.

Smiles of victory on the faces. The wake behind the boat, is very impressive.

They're away! The start of the Cardboard Boat Race.

Special thanks go to Eugene and Fleur Nahi, Stefan and Michelle Singfield, Matiu and Naomi Noakes, Gene Thomsen and Clayton McKenzie, Sylvia Moffitt and Vicky Murray for their generous and tireless efforts and practical help at making this camp a success.

More prizes given out!

Thanks also to those who generously contributed financially to the camp.

We would also like to congratulate the young people on their behaviour and maturity during the camp.

Bros. Eugene and Gary take a break and watch the activities.

Sister Sylvia, Bro. Paul fell down in mock horror amidst much laughter!

Brother Tony, Sister Vicky with gifts of appreciation.

See you all next year !

"Today what we have among us, this Holy Spirit is more than a prophet. It's God's manifestation among us with His Word to prove it." [The Third Exodus]

"...That Word is again waved over the people, that the dead traditions of man is dead and the Son of Man is alive again with Baptism of The Holy Spirit right among us and is giving us Life."

[The Rising of the Sun]

~~ Knowledge vs. Life ~~

Bro Derrick Donaldson

Bro Branham: "Life, what is Life? Tell me what life is, and I will tell you Who God is."
"Education can never give us Life. Education can never. Science can never give us Life. The World can't give us Life. The Church can't give us Life. Theology can't give us Life. There is only one thing, can give you Life, that's Christ. He is Life. The Abundant Life."

In the sixties, after the Seals were opened and revealed, many great truths were restored to the body of Christ, for which we are all thankful to The Lord. [In the Evening Time it would be light].

The early Church had encounters with God, then wrote about them. Since then, many have been trying to write and preach about them and then have the encounter with God. This has resulted in a form of Godliness without God. For example, how many, after studying the life and fellowship of the early Church, duplicated the things they did in order to effect the same spirit and service to Church life, only to have it result in another dead form. The early Church did not have fellowship and communion with each other, because they did things 'in a certain way', but because God was moving in their midst.

When God is moving, His people want to be joined together and will do so without pressure. When God is moving, truth becomes life. If He is not moving, all of our formulas and principles to get people motivated will not be productive.

The Bible, the Message, is not just a system of truths and principles.
It is a relationship with a living God.

Truths and principles instituted before the relationship is established, are still rooted in the tree of knowledge, regardless of how accurate the truths. Only when the relationship is established are we safe to implement truths and principles. Then the tree is known by it's fruit. Jesus never said, we would know those who were His, because all of their doctrines were accurate. [The devil believes and trembles.] There is only one way to discern those who are true servants: by their fruit. [The Word made flesh.]

Of course, all who love the truth, will want their doctrines to be accurate, but it is better to be a little wrong in doctrine, and be humble before The Lord, than to have 'right' doctrine with pride. Those who are wrong, but have humility, can be corrected. Those who are right, but proud, usually end up doing more damage to the Body and the cause of Christ, than many false teachers.

Our goal must be to have right doctrines, but with humility and an entreatable, tolerant spirit that loves even those who are in error, just as Jesus does. The truth that God requires is not in the minds, but in the hearts.

Nowhere does the Scripture warn us to beware of those who are not submitted to the body: The warning is to beware of those who are not joined to The Head.

Bro Branham: "Remember, to be born again, is to have that extreme love and know that we passed from death unto life. We have the abundance of life, and the abundant life is that overflowing something, that God puts into the human being."

"Two different spirits, both of them religious, but one of them is possessed with The Holy Spirit that lives the kind of life that is Godly and honest. They wouldn't beat you out of a penny. They'd do everything honest that they could to help you, just as nice as can be."

God bless you

Bro Barry looks back ~~And sees Amazing Grace~~

It was all of sixty-eight years ago when my older brother invited me to a church service on a Sunday evening. I was thirteen years old and I grabbed the opportunity, if only for a ride on his motorbike! I was a rebellious child; cheeky, disobedient to my parents, a blasphemer, taking The Lord's name in vain and many other shameful things. The year was 1940.

I can still remember that first Communion Service and the hymn, "And he walks with me and he talks with me, and he tells me I am His own" that they sang at the end, because He touched me with His Presence. I was started for the Kingdom. The joy that filled my soul was so wonderful. I know that a flame had kindled in my soul and the conviction of The Holy Spirit prompted me to put the wrongs in my past, right. As this list became shorter and shorter, so more of His Joy flooded my soul. In the lunch break at school, instead of playing sports, I would become engrossed in reading God's Word. It set me on fire and I would boldly and fearlessly witness to all the students at school.

Then World War II was looming and people were living in fear. Street lights were turned off, house windows were covered over with black paper to block out any light. For me it was a glorious time. God was working in a supernatural way in lives, bringing salvation to many. As we cycled home in the dark, with no lights except from the moon, we would be singing at the top of our voices. The cross was my theme. By His grace He had saved me, cleansed me and filled my life with such a love for Jesus.

During the winter of 1942 my father died and I lived alone with my mother. My older brothers were in the army and my sisters were living in Auckland. I started work, which I got caught up with, and when the persecution from my peers and family came, I got caught in a snare. My mother put pressure on me and caused me to backslide. [My mother in latter years came to know The Lord's saving grace and she died in The Lord.] I had lost my joy and peace and came under duress; my freedom and liberty in Christ was gone. Totally deceived I found what I thought was a legitimate way back into the world. I told myself I would lead a respectable life. But not so.

In the years that followed I sank deeper in the mire. I would look at myself and wonder how I had sunk so low. I was worse than those around me. Every word in the story Jesus told of the Prodigal son fitted my case. But even in this state, God watched over me delivering me from a very serious car crash within a hairsbreadth of death. It didn't touch me, or my car. But the fear that gripped me was so real. Oh the mercy of God!

My mother became very ill and when I visited her she pleaded with me to come back to The Lord. She asked, "Won't you come back?" I said "Yes Mum I will." But I didn't follow it through. Then years later my doctor told me I had only two years to live and unless I stopped my drinking I would die. This was a shock. I was smoking 40 – 50 cigarettes a day and my life was a mess. Yet all the time I was in the world, the hymn I sung at the first service I went to in 1940 kept coming back to me. I had to do something.

Easter 1987 was approaching and I knew if I gave my life back to Jesus Christ, this horrible unbelief and bondage to sin would go. I began to seek The Lord in earnest and the desires of the flesh fell off like chains that had bound me for about forty years. My heart was reaching out to Calvary and all that Jesus had done to save a wretch like me.

I contacted my older brother because it became so urgent in my soul to go and give my heart afresh to The Lord. I'd been in this wasted condition for too long and this decision was a turning point.

The life of Christ returned, and all the past was washed away! I was now going in the opposite direction. All this happened in a moment of time. O amazing Grace! What Love! Like the prodigal son I was one with my Heavenly Father! He washed me and clothed me in His garments! Every desire for the old habits was completely gone. I was set free!!!

The evil one tried me. I felt fear gripping my heart but in the darkness a sweet tender voice spoke to me. "Go and sin no more" and the peace and joy overwhelmed me. I will never forget how the victory in Christ would just overwhelm me, as His presence reached right into my life. Five years later the dear Lord Jesus Christ lead me into the revelation of the last day Message. Praise His wonderful Name.

When time shall end for me on this earth, my one desire is to walk those golden streets with my dear wife and two daughters. Amazing Grace!

~He that is in you~

God's purpose and plan is to be tabernacled and dwell in the flesh of His Family. Jesus Christ was the beginning of the creation of God, and the New Testament saints are the continuation of the same Creation. Through election, the great Creator is taking on form by creating Himself a part of His creation from His thoughts, to spoken word, to flesh.

The consummation of this is to be fully manifested in the flesh of His end time Bride, as the wife is the glory of her husband. The Bible is the story of God unfolding or changing Himself from the eternal Spirit alone with His thoughts, to the manifestation of those eternal thoughts in the glorified flesh of His sons and daughters.

His true revelation and purpose is being realised in a threefold manner. First, He has revealed the fullness of Himself in Christ so that, secondly, He might have the preeminence in His Body of believers to live in His people, His Bride and Temple not made with hands; and thirdly, to restore the Kingdom to the perfections of Eden before the Fall.

John the Baptist was the Elijah who introduced the first coming of Christ when the fullness of God came to dwell in the temple of The Lord Jesus. Brother Branham was the Elijah who foreran the second coming of Christ when Christ comes to dwell in His Bride. The second coming of The Lord, as described in 1st THESSALONIANS 4:16, was not a corporal body of Jesus the Man coming to earth as in His first coming; it was the secret coming of Christ in Word form through the mouth of His prophet as declared in MATTHEW 24:27: For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. A universal global coming of Light shining upon and revealing The Word. The Lord Himself descended from heaven with a shout (the Message) for the purpose of uniting His bride with Him in agreement with His Word, and thus abiding in them. This is the Bride coming of Christ; Christ on earth again in the human flesh of His Bride.

It is at this second coming that He fully incarnates the temple of His many-membered Bride Body; she has always been in His thoughts from the beginning, but now through the mouth of a vindicated Prophet she is coming from spoken word to flesh. All that was in God He poured into Christ, and all that was in Christ He poured into the Church.

The capstone of Christ in you. It is none other than Jesus Christ Himself incarnate in the believer; God and man in union again as it was with Adam, walking in perfect agreement and oneness. This is what the invisible union of the Bride to Christ is all about, a physical, bodily coming of the Lord Jesus as His first coming could not have achieved this as His purpose was to be in us. If we are caught up into heavenly places and have met Him face to face by seeing Him revealed in His Word, then we shall soon be caught up in the air at the rapturing of the Bride when we shall see Him face to face in His physical form.

He that is in you is the full Word of God revealed to your heart restoring the original faith and fulfilling Malachi 4's prophecy. Denominations cannot produce this. Now if the same Spirit which raised Christ from the dead dwells in us, it will quicken our mortal bodies to The Word. If our bodies and spirits are NOT coming subject to The Word, then we need to look carefully at what we are feeding on. Please let me repeat this: If our bodies are NOT becoming subject to The Word, then it shows that we are not feeding on The Word but on the world, for it is what a man sows that he reaps.

If you sow Christ, The Word, into your mind and heart then His Life will automatically in due season begin to live out.

I have been told that up to eighty percent of learning is done through visual observation. Is it any wonder why Satan uses so much visual temptation in this last age. He is preaching and teaching his message of deception by having his sermons lived out before us by the postmodern culture displayed so eloquently by the masses, and if we're not careful and on guard we'll subconsciously buy into it and then wonder why we are backslidden and powerless to overcome when the Bible said to flee the very appearance of evil. Yet some of us still watch TV in our homes in direct disobedience to what the Prophet said.

I would like to earnestly encourage each one to desperately sow the Seed of The Word of God into your hearts as diligently as you can, and instead of watching "We Love Suzy", put on a message tape and/or read your Bible and pray. Draw nigh to Him and He will draw nigh to you. Like the little boy in the story who ate the rubber off the bicycle peddles to get the sulphur, whatever you have to do to get the vitamins of the Word into your soul, lay aside all else and do that. Rev.3:20b "if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me". Be strong and of good courage; in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us, because He that is in you is greater than he that is in the world.

Your brother in Christ,
Dean Gilchrist,
Wanganui

~Brother Greg ministers at Young People's Camp~

In Canada

I was invited to come and help Bro Eugene Braun with his annual youth camp in Canada. Bro Darrel Ward took the evening services and I took the morning. Bro Eugene specifically asked me to teach on the gifts of Romans 12:5-8. Being that it was an eight part series, I was only able to deliver four messages on that. The young people were excited to see which gift God had given them and were able to do this by the test we provided. They say they felt encouraged to go home and use what The Lord had given them for the Kingdom of God.

E-64 SEPARATION FROM UNBELIEF – 550228 Brother Branham says: Now, that's their ministry, the way they do it. Now, to me, gifts and callings of this type is not the laying on of hands. You're born with these gifts. See? You come in the world with them. Now, just as natural for me to see a vision as it is for you to take a drink of water when you're thirsty. See? Nothing I have to do with it.

19 MANIFESTED SONS OF GOD – AD. 2 1960 Bro Branham says: The Joshua of today puts the church in its order, giving to each one gifts, places, position. And He is the Voice of God speaking through the inner man that Christ has saved, The Holy Spirit. Now, do you get that much of it? Now we're getting over into the Book of Ephesians. Now, the same way, He's positionally placing the church where they belong. Now, Joshua placed them in the natural land. Now The Holy Spirit is placing the church, positionally, in the land, that they, in the position that they belong in, their inheritance.

On my way home, I visited Bro Ron Peterson's fellowship in Phoenix and had a wonderful time of fellowship there with the saints. I felt directed to speak on 'Suffering and Forgiveness'. Thank God for the liberation in His Word.

Being I am from Oregon, we called there and went to see my elderly Aunt and Uncle. We also called on Nancy's elderly stepmother. I stayed with my brother and his family. One of our old high school mates organised an evening with some of our classmates and I was able to share a slide show of our home here in NZ and how The Lord had lead us to salvation and into the ministry. I was able to share many things out of God's Word with them. I also made contact with Bro Rich Cobb in Monmouth. It was good catching up with the church in Monmouth as we have always gone there whenever we are in Oregon. There were still about 8-10 folk who were there 25 years ago when we first went there.

I came home exhausted by all the travel and speaking with people but refreshed in my spirit of all I felt The Lord has done. I received an email from the associate pastor that the work was still going on in the young people's lives after the camp. For this we are truly thankful to The Lord. God bless you all and be encouraged in The Lord.

Yours because of Jesus,
Greg Alford (Pastor)

~The Life of Caleb~

By Bro Jeff Jenkins

I was thinking about the life of Caleb the other day. What a life that man lived. Caleb was such a man of courage. Caleb loved a good fight. You have to study the life of Caleb. There was a man of incredible faith. Out of 2 million people. Let me put it in another way. Out of 2 million doubters, unbelievers who did not go into the promise, Caleb went in – surrounded by doubt, surrounded by fear.

Tell me, what kind of a world do you live in? I think we live in the same world. It's a world of reason and logic. There's no faith in God. There's no faith in The Word of God. There's faith in achievement, there's faith in science, there's faith in medicine, but there's very little faith in The Word of God. We are surrounded by logic and reason and by intellect and by education. We are surrounded by it all the time but in the midst of all that reasoning and all that doubt, Caleb remained faithful.

In his earlier life, Caleb was committed.

In his middle years, he was consistent.

In his latter life, he was triumphant.

He was Committed, Consistent, Triumphant.

What sort of a pattern do you have in consistency? What sort of path do your feet walk on? Where does your mind take you, day by day? Where are your thoughts? For as a man thinketh, so is he. As we said before, our thoughts take us to our destiny. It takes us to a place. One day we'll travel on a thought when we get a new body. We're travelling on a thought now. It's taking us to a destiny. Are your thoughts, higher thoughts? Are our thoughts filled with possibility? Are your thoughts full of Faith? Is God in those thoughts? Is His Word in those thoughts? Do you see God in every junction of your life – that there's possibility after possibility?

When the twelve spies went over to the land to spy out the land, God told them to tell what they saw. He wanted their perspective, whether real or imagined. He wanted to know if they operated in the realms of Faith. [Now what does that mean, Bro Jeff?] Faith in what God said before they started their journey; 'I'm going to take you to a land that flows with milk and honey and I'm going to give you that land and there's going to be walls you never dug, houses you never built. I'm going to deliver you from Egypt and I'm going to take you into the promised land. I'm going to take you out of bondage, out of despair, away from the taskmaster's whip and I'm going to take you away into the promises.' God wanted them to see the same things He saw.

So the twelve went over. Caleb and Joshua went over also. And they all began to recognise, as they looked around, that the land was flourishing. There were wells, waterfalls and bunches of grapes that two men had to carry between them at the river of Eshcol. And they saw that the land was fruitful and that it was plentiful and it was the time of the first harvest. And the land was capable of bringing forth much fruit and truly it was as they confessed with their own mouth, 'It flows with milk and honey – but - but!' – as they came back.

How did Joshua and Caleb come back? With a SKIP in every step!! They came back with absolute expectation! They came back with thoughts of Opportunity! Opportunity! Opportunity!

A Humble Confidence.

By Brother Malcolm Ferris – Ch.Ch.

The prophet of God told us that we were to believe like this:

'If only one person in the world is going to make it then I am that one.'

Now this is a paradox because he also said: 'If I am not Bride then by His grace I'll not stand in her way'. So how can both statements be true? How can we believe and therefore live according to both of these statements? How does our life express that confidence that you are going to make it even if no one else does and at the same time maintain the attitude of preferring others above self? By looking at who is making it! We are not going to make it in our own strength – therefore our lives are, or ought to be only a reflection of Him, and if that is the case there is no hindrance to preferring Christ in others. After all it is all Him! And all of Him and by Him and for Him and Jesus has the pre-eminence in all things. Who are we? Who are others? Compared to Him all else becomes unimportant. No wonder the prophet could say 'I would rather be a doormat in the entrance of Heaven than to dwell in tents with sin' All that matters in this life is what is reflected in Eternity. If all our life amounted to being a stepping-stone for one of the Elect on this earth, it would at least show as a thing of honour in the Kingdom of Heaven before the Mighty God. 'But where shall the sinner and the ungodly appear?'

The Rise to Power of Barak Obama is in accordance with The Bible:

Judges 4: 4 says: And Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, she judged Israel at that time. Deborah represents the Church (a woman in the Bible represents a church) or a Christian judging the inhabitants of the earth by living the Word of the LORD God before a people who have refused to read the Word of the LORD God.

It is when the Church is operating by the Word that Judges 4: 6 says: And she sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam out of Kedesh-naphtali, and said unto him, Hath not the LORD God of Israel commanded, saying, Go and draw toward mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun? Barak Obama will prepare the United States of America for the Battle of Armageddon (without realizing), even as Barak prepared Israel for battle.

Barak Obama has become President when Russia is preparing itself to do battle against the United States of America. Judges 4: 7 says: And I will draw unto thee to the river Kishon Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his multitude; and I will deliver him into thine hand. The River Kishon is in Israel's valley of Megiddo, the site for Armageddon. The LORD God will bring Russia to the Battle of Armageddon with its war machines (chariots) and soldiers (the multitude), and it will be defeated.

It will not be Barak Obama who brings the United States of America to the scene of the battle, but a woman. Judges 4: 9 says: And she said, I will surely go with thee: notwithstanding the journey that thou takest shall not be for thine honour; for the LORD shall sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh. A woman President, in obedience to the Vatican's order (the puppeteer controlling the global economy), will bring the United States of America to the scene of the battle.

When the two superpowers are engaged in battle, the LORD God will step onto the world stage. Judges 4: 15 says: And the LORD discomfited Sisera, and all his chariots, and all his host, with the edge of the sword before Barak; so that Sisera lighted down off his chariot, and fled away on his feet. The LORD God will smite the host of Russia with the Sword of His Word, for Revelation 19: 21 says: And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.

2,000,000 demons were loosed from the realm of Hell in Revelation 9: 3 with the power to anoint men with a lying spirit to fulfill the Word. Revelation 9: 19 says: For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt. These demons anointed the mouth of Adolph Hitler (a powerful speaker), inspiring him to speak of restoring the depression broken economy of Germany, the building of a new Germany, and the building of a better world. The German people believed his words and set about to fulfill his vision, passionately referring to him as the man who will change Germany. Those lying words uttered brought the German people into a world war, a Holocaust, and the ruination of Germany.

These demons are anointing the mouth of Barak Obama (a powerful speaker), inspiring him to speak of restoring the breaking economy of the United States of America, the building of a new United States of America, and the building of a better world.

Mankind has believed these words and is setting about to passionately fulfill his vision, referring to him as the man who will change the United States of America. Those lying words uttered will bring the American people into a world war, a nuclear Holocaust, and the ruination of the United States of America.

God bless you.

~~The Lord's Healing in my life~~

It was when I was in my forties that I suffered badly from a depressive illness and it had been gradually getting worse. This was very difficult for my whole family and especially for our children who were teenagers. I just didn't function as I should and was always negative and depressed.

I realised I needed help, but the Doctors couldn't help me. I realised later that it was a 'family spirit' that had come down from my grandmother. And it had affected several members of my family in different ways.

Then we attended the Gisborne Convention where Bro Pearry Green and Bro Ojar were the speakers. I discussed the problem with Bro Pearry and he said he would pray for me when the anointing was on the meeting. As it happened, it was Bro Ojar who prayed for me. I hadn't had the time to tell him what my condition was. But he was used to dealing with evil spirits and when he prayed for me, this thing screamed and left me. I fell to the floor and was in pain in my abdomen for a while, but it wore off and I have NEVER had problems with it since. It was so wonderful to be free of 'depression'!

It was several years later when I was sitting in our lounge, not even thinking about the things of The Lord, when I saw in my mind, a 'black ugly bug' dropping on the floor in front of me. It was dead. And a voice inside me said, "that will not worry you any more." That was an inferiority complex I had had for many years. It was hard for me to talk to people I didn't know, and to communicate with other people. Now I am able to talk to anyone.

So I praise The Lord for His goodness and His healing Power. I have written this, should you wish to put it into the Believers Newsletter. It might help to build up someone else's faith also.

May The Lord bless you all.

*In Prison Chains, with bleeding stripes, Paul and Silas lay that night.
And in their pain, began to praise.
Their chains were loosed and they were free!*

*Some midnight hour, if you should find, you're in a prison in your mind;
Reach out and pray, DEFY those chains -
And they will fall in Jesus Name!*

*I bless Your Name! I bless Your Name!
I give You honour, give You praise!
You are the life, the truth, the way -
I bless Your Name! I bless Your Name!*

Whitewashing the pump
Doesn't make it give pure water.
That must come from down inside the well.

And the trouble of it is that the church has forgot they were sons. You are sons. You're taking Christ's place. You are sons; so don't live for yourself; live for others.

"Well, Brother Branham, I can live for this brother because he sure is a nice man." That's not it. Live for that man who hates you. Live for that person who'd kill you if they could. That's what they done to Him. They killed Him, and He died that He might save them. That's Eternal Life. When you—that's in your bosom, you're facing heaven then. But you sacrifice your own things, give them up like the sheep gives its wool. You look on towards Calvary.

~The Spirit of Prophecy~

By Brother Barry Boyes

Revelation 19:9-10

9 And he saith unto me, write, Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.

10 And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

The testimony of Jesus is the Spirit of Prophecy. This same testimony is the possession of the fellow-servant and the brethren being part of the same word. Written epistles as Paul declared. We find that The Word is full of that Spirit of Prophecy and we recognise that The Word of The Lord was spoken unto us by the prophets. Every type and shadow of the Old Testament projected the Spirit of Prophecy. Every lamb sacrifice prophesied of the true Lamb of God that was to come. The Old Testament tabernacle spoke of this tabernacle in which we live as Brother Branham spoke of in the message, Inner Veil (Vol 2. No.14 1956: 56-0121).

This message in which we walk is continuing to move in that spirit of prophecy and we can confidently say 'this day is The Word being fulfilled'.

We find this in Luke 4:16-22 where Jesus went into the synagogue and stood up to read and the book of the prophet (Isaiah) was delivered unto him. They gave him the right book and Jesus identified his positional place in The Word as the fulfilment in the Spirit of Prophecy. We have been given the right message. We need to identify our position in this message. When Brother Branham preached the message 'Birth Pains' (Vol 3. No.4 1965: 65-0124) and 'This day this scripture is fulfilled' (Vol 3. No.8 1965: 65-0219) because of the problem with his new Bible, the Catholic priest stepped up to the pulpit and gave Bro Branham his bible and said, 'this is God, God is fixing to move'. Jesus' part of Isaiah 61:1-2 was to preach the acceptable year of His first coming. The second part was to bring judgement with His second coming.

The leadership of the Spirit will always be in the Spirit of Prophecy manifesting The Word that has been spoken.

Romans 8:14-19 (also Adoption part 3 Pg 87-89)

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

16 The Spirit itself beareth witness with our Spirit, that we are the children of God:

17 And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with Him, that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us

19. For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.

The spirit of adoption reveals our intimate relationship with our Father as heirs and joint heirs with Christ and also his glory is to be revealed in us, all culminating in the manifestation of the sons of God. Bro Branham brings out this portion of Roman 8 on pages 87-89 in his 'Adoption' message. He says What's everything waiting on? What's the whole creation waiting for? The manifestation of the sons of God: the church to come into its position.

God Bless you.

"I lent him my only copy of "More Than Dreams" which we watched together. He was truly impressed. He in turn used this DVD and showed it to about 10 young men of Muslim background – the effects were powerful!"

Brother Tony

Portraying the testimony of five Moslems who had a sovereign encounter with Jesus Christ, as He met them out the depths of their despair. Many thousands of Moslems have had similar personal experiences.

Inspiring and Challenging; this DVD is now available to you at a very moderate cost, as we have been granted Duplicating rights.

In his 1958 Missions Report, Brother Branham talks about Muslims and their response when they see the Holy Spirit do supernatural things. That response can be dramatically seen in the DVD "More Than Dreams."

More than Dreams shows how five different Muslims, each searching for God in different countries with different personal problems, meet Jesus Christ. Each story is introduced by the real person but acted out in a realistic and culturally eye opening way. Although each story takes place in a different country with a different culture, the bleak legalistic life of a Muslim stands out clearly. Each of the five become new people in Christ, people with peace, power and purpose, sharing the love of God as they reach out to other Muslims.

All stories are told in the local language with English subtitles. The summary at the end of each dramatization can be ignored. It is the power of Christ in the stories showing the greatest miracle of all; Christ bringing life to a person dead in a false religion, that makes this DVD fascinating and inspiring. If ever there was a doubt about the relative strength of Islam and real Christianity then this DVD will dispel it.
